Complete your 90 hours of coursework in a flexible online format!

The Arizona Department of Real Estate requires completion of at least 90 hours of coursework and passing an in-person school final exam, in order to be eligible to take the State of Arizona's real estate salesperson license exam. Students who complete the program and pass the state licensing exam may apply for their state real estate license.

SCC's Real Estate: Prelicense program specifically prepares students to qualify to take the Arizona Real Estate Licensing exam and for a career in real estate.
